

CoolCampus is HERE

- John Premjeet Page

Between yesterday and today, universities have evolved
But the problems of old still remain, they have not been solved!
Primitive methods of teaching still prevail
Causing me to shout, cry and wail!

Lost in stacks of book, reams of paper
I pray day and night for deliverance, someone please send me a saviour!
In this fast moving world I ask, Can I ever meet the pace?
Can I ever take a break and yet serve out an ace?

Lecture theatres are boring, Lecture notes are no fun
Can I ever lie on the grass and do all my learning under the sun?
At night I struggle to sleep, someone please help me for my sanity's sake
Morning dawns, my alarm buzzes me awake!

Half asleep, I drag myself to class
Okay, big deal, so what if I'm there last!
As I enter class I can feel a change, it is there in the air
Surely, the girl next to me never looked so pretty, so fair!

I force my eyes open and look around
Am I in a dream or is this a headset, I've found?
Maybe this is a joke or perhaps it is someone's lost mobile phone?
Still in a trance, I slip the headset on

'Chill out, mate' is a voice I hear
Your prayers are answered, CoolCampus is here!
CoolCampus means freedom from lecture rooms, the voice continues
Let me tell you, how CoolCampus will blow away your blues!

In the CoolCampus, learning will be fun
Never again will there be any paperwork to be done!
Lectures will be online, saving your travel time as well as mine
Stand no more in crowded trains, or get a traffic fine!

CoolCampus is a thrill, c'mon mate hop on and take a ride
In here feel audio and visual stream, experience bits and bytes collide!
Teacher and student will study one-to-one, face-to-face
Logon now and set your own learning pace!

Distant campuses, distant learning, all shall be names from the past
Experience this new feeling, for it is here to last!
Different cultures will meet, new friendships will develop in here
Finally examinations will never hold any fear!

CoolCampus is innovation, CoolCampus is excitement
Through it all students will receive enlightenment!
Girls and Boys, Hear me again, CoolCampus is here
Join up today and hop into the future!
